If you have a lot of clothes and you don't have any more space, don't just throw it away the clothes you can sell them. But if you don't need any more clothes or other things don't buy it and save money .Imagine you are in greek and what to buy a lot of clothes and accessories for you and others, but you don't have enough space for the things you bought and now you don't know what to do, you can try to fit all the stuff in your bag, but it would be hopeless, before buying all that stuff think of what you need and don't need.
